POETRY.

THEATRICAL REMINESCENCES.

I never to the Play-house go,
And gaze upon the mimic scene,—
But early recollections rise
Of what the Stage has been.

Those halcyon days when Cooper played
The Roman's part in all:
Hamlet the Dane—Mark Antony—
Brutus in Tarquin's fall.—

For Tom in tragic power was then
The 'noblest feather in our wing;'
'The glass of fashion—mould of form'—
'Aye—every inch a King.'

Who can forget that radiant face—
That step, so graceful, firm and free—
'An eye like Jove to awe—command'—
The Prince of Tragedy!

I see 'Old Johnson' moving round
The boards Tom Kitner trod;
And think, when Andrews greets me now—
Of Bray beneath the sod.

Barrett and Balls the palm contend
In brilliant comedy—'enough!'
He who combined the gifts of both
We meet no more—Jack Duff.

Though Farce with boisterous mirth excites
The crowd—amidst the din—
I turn away from gay Jack Reeve
And sigh for H. J. Finn.

I sigh for those who pleased me first,
When life and hope were new;
The oft remembered of our youth
Now gone or lingering few.

* HENRY; star of my earliest love!
First glitterer on memory's sky;
'Age withers not, nor custom stales
Thy infinite variety.'

What images that gentle name,
Reveals to recollection dear,
Long hidden by Time's raven wing—
'Jewel in Ethiop's ear!'

Lost Pleiad, from thy constellation stray'd
'Bright exhalations'† vainly hover near;
'In thy bright radiance and collateral light'
They live—'not in thy sphere.'

'But O vain boast,' why seek the past—
Lamenting what must be;
Yet 'I remember such things were
And were most dear to me.'

JAQUES.

SPECTACLE ISLAND, Feb. 8, 1836.

* Now, Mrs Barrett.

MR BULWER'S "RIENZI."

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

If, in adopting the legendary lovel-tale of Romeo and Juliet, Shakspeare had changed the scene in which it is cast for a more northern clime, I doubt whether the wit of Shakspeare himself could have reconciled us at once to the suddenness and the strength of Juliet's passion. And even as it is, I believe there are few of our rational and sober-minded islanders who would not honestly confess, if fairly questioned, that they deemed the romance and fervour of those ill-starred lovers of Verona exaggerated and overdrawn. Yet in Italy, the picture of that affection born of a night, but "strong as death," is one to which the veriest commonplaces of life would afford parallels without number. As in different ages, so in different climes love varies wonderfully in the shape it takes. And even at this day, beneath Italian skies, many a simple girl would feel as Juliet, and many a homely gallant would rival the extravagance of Romeo. Long suits in that sunny land wherein, as whereof, I now write are unknown. In no other land, perhaps, is there found so commonly the love at first sight, which in France is a jest, and in England a doubt; in no other land, too, is love, though so suddenly conceived, more faithfully preserved.—That which is ripened in fancy, comes at once to passion—yet is embalmed through all time by sentiment.

YOUTHFUL FEELINGS.

In them, everything was young! the heart unchilled, unblighted; that fulness and luxuriance of life's life which has in it something of divine. At that age, when it seems as if we could never die, how deathless, how flushed and mighty as with the youngness of a god, are all that our hearts create! Our own youth is like that of the earth itself, when it peopled the woods and waters with divinities; when life ran riot, and yet only gave birth to beauty; all its shapes, of poetry, all its airs, the melodies of Arcadia and Olympus, all earth itself, even in its wildest lairs, another, nay, a happier heaven, prodigal of the same glories, and haunted by the same forms! The golden age never leaves the world: it exists still, and shall exist, till love, health, poetry, are no more, but only for the young!

ELOQUENCE.

The great secret of eloquence is to be in earnest—the secret of Rienzi's eloquence was in the mightiness of his enthusiasm. He never spoke as one who doubted of success. Perhaps, like most men who undertake high and great actions, he himself was never thoroughly aware of the obstacles in his way. He saw the end, bright and clear, and overleaped, in the vision of his soul, the crosses and the length of the path; thus the deep convictions of his own mind stamped themselues irresistibly upon others. He seemed less to promise than to prophecy.

WOMAN'S LOVE.

No woman ever loved to the full extent of the passion who did not venerate where she loved, and who did not not feel humble (delighted in that humility) by her exaggerated and overweening estimate of the superiority of the object of her worship.

What state could fall, what liberty decay, if the zeal of man's noisy patriotism was as pure as the silent loyalty of a woman's love?

Woman's love is a robe that wraps her from many a storm.

A NOBLE SOUL IMPRISONED.

The noble Boniface himself, a man of great heart, and nerves of iron, was kept in thraldom by the ancestors of the Orsini—his entrances and exits made but at their will—so that, like a caged eagle, he beat himself against his bars and died.

THE TIMES OF CHIVALRY.

Sometimes they made short excursions, for the disturbed state of the country forbade them to wander far from the castle; through the sunny woods, and along the glassy sea, which make the charm of that delicious scenery, and that mixture of the savage with the tender, the wild escort, the tent in some green glade in the woods at noon, the lute and voice of Adeline, with the fierce soldiers grouped and listening at the distance, might have well suited the verse of Ariosto, and harmonized singularly with that strange, disordered, yet chivalric time, in which the classic south became the seat of the northern romance.

What are riches and renown but the means to power? And for strife, the shield of warriors was my cradle—pray the saints it be my bier! These wild and wizard extremes of life—from the bower to the tent—from the cavern to the palace—to-day a wandering exile—to-morrow the equal of kings—make the true element of the chivalry of my Norman sires. Normandy taught me war, and sweet Provence love. Kiss me dear Adeline; and now let thy handmaids attire thee. Forget not thy lute, sweet one. We will rouse the echoes with the songs of Provence.

BRITISH COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, LONDON.

IT has become a duty to acquaint the public that the genuine Improved Hygeian Vegetable Pills which are prescribed in accordance with the doctrines of the British College of Physicians and Surgeons, London, and which are recommended by the writings and practice of Sir Astley Cooper, Mr Abernethy, and the most eminent Physicians and Practitioners of Europe and America, are signed on the outer cover of every package, in the following lawful and particular manner:

JOSEPH RALPH, M. D.—GRADUATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH;—MEMBER OF THE ROYAL COLLEGE OF SURGEONS, LONDON;—LECTURER ON MIDWIFRY AND THE DISEASES OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN;—AND AUTHOR OF THE "FAMILY PHYSICIAN, A DOMESTIC GUIDE TO MEDICINE."

(Note. The various documentt, Diplomas and stamped Certificates, which show the connection of the Author with the Institutionsabove mentioned are publicly exhibited at the General Office, Cortland street, N. Y. and may be seen by anh individual at any time.)

Nothing seems to have afforded more general satisfaction and advantage to society, than having the Hygeian Medicine prescribed and prepared by a regular and practical physician, and one who may at all times be consulted or appealed to, either by post or otherwise, on the subject of its operation and disease. This also is the more appreciated in consequence of the number of different medicines which are daily advertised under various pretences in the name of "Hygeian" and "original Hygeian."

The directions which accompany every package of this Domestic Medicine, are exceedingly plain and particular,—the proper dose and management of the Pills being carefully given under the head of each disorder separately. Those who keep this medicine by them, especially country families, find that nothing is more economical or better adapted for family use, and being free from mercury or any hurtful property, they may always be resorted to with perfect safety. Neither is it too much to state with strict regard to truth, that thousands are indebted to this medicine for the preservation of life and ealth.h

The connection which exists between the organs of digestion and almost all deseases, being the basis of this Domestic Medicine, there is scarcely a disorder incident to human nature in which they are not taken advantageously, but those disorders in which the most remarkable instances of benefit and cures have been experienced are the following:—Bilious disorders, Dyspepsia, affections of the head and nervous complaints, with all those various disorders which originate in hot climates or from costive bowels. Also, Fevers, Inflammation, Gout, Rheumatism, Cutaneous Diseases, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Scrophula, Coughs which threaten Consumption, and especially Gravel, Gleet, and other weaknesses in the Urinary and Geintal organs.

This Medicine also, in a peculiar manner, is adapted to the disorders of the female constitution, both in early and more advanced periods of life.

Wholesale Agent for Boston, who is able to supply the surrounding country stores on the same liberal terms as the general office, N. Y. is WILLIAM WARD & Co, No. 27, India St.

Important!

TO PERSONS SUFFERING FROM RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS.

To the Editor of the Inquirer:

SIR—On the principles inculcated by the great and good Dr Franklin, to diffuse as widely as possible every means in our power to mitigate or soften the afflictions of suffering humanity, I feel it incumbent upon me to make known through the medium of your useful paper that on reading therein an advertisement of Dr Jebb's Liniment, for the cure of RHEUMATISM, I was forcibly impressed with a belief that it was calculated to remove the severe Rheumatic Affection to which I had been for seven or eight years subjected, sometimes almost depriving me of the use of my limbs. I accordingly procured a Bottle, and before I had used the whole of it, found very sensible relief. This increased my confidence in it, and led me to obtain another bottle, the use of which has completely removed the swellings and pains of my limbs, together with the cramp, and restored them to their wonted vigor.

I am respectfully yours,
GEORGE TAYLOR, JR

Hempstead, L. I., March 24th.

Persons suffering from the above complaints, and in despair of a cure from the failure of the various remedies they have used, are invited to make trial of this long and celebrated medicine, which has in years passed cured and relieved, as it is now doing, thousands who had despaired of relief. Nothing but a fair trial can give an adequate idea of its unrivalled excellence. It is also one of the best applications known for stiffness of the joints, numbness, sprains and chilblains.

Price 50 cents.

ROWLAND'S MACASSAR OIL.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

THE high repute and extensive sale of Rowland's Macassar Oil, throughout the world, has induced speculators to imitate the label—even to forgery, and impose upon the public base imitations, instead of the original.

Also, adventurers to gain a trifle more profit, have introduced into the United States counterfeit imitations, composed of deleterious ingredients, injurious to the hair, to the serious injury of the proprietors and the public.

To prevent such imposition, A. Rowland & Son, respectfully solicit particular attention on purchasing the original Macassar Oil; each bottle is enclosed with a treatise on the hair in an envelope, tastfully executed, with the names of his agents on each pamphlet.

The signature and address is red, on a pattern of lace work, similar to a banker's cheque.

"A Rowland & Son, 20 Hatton Garden,"—countersigned "Alex. Rowland." Also, each bottle has the name and address of the Agent on the label, Mr J. A. DICKSON, Music Saloon, Cornhill, formerly Market street, Boston.

☞ Particular attention to this caution is necessary, as the proprietors cannot be responsible for the serious injury resulting from the use of base imitations.

This Oil is the original and genuine, which has been for many years universally admired, and acknowledged superior to all others. It possesses wonderful properties in restoring the hair on parts of the head that were previously bald, proved by testimonials received from the most distinguished personages in all parts of the globe, and prevents the hair from falling off, or turning gray, to the latest period of life; generates with infancy ample growth of beautiful hair, and will sustain it in perfection through all stages of existence.

Subduing all relaxing tendencies, it firmly keeps the hair in curl and other decorative formation, during many hours, unimpaired by damp weather, crowded assemblies, the dance, or even equestrian exercise.

This incomparable Oil is the friend of both sexes; for, while it facilitates the progres of female beauty, it enhances. by producing whiskers, mustachios, &c. the graces of manhood.

THE BOSTON MORNING POST.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1836.

☞ A favorite Correspondent has furnished us with some poetical reminiscences, connected with his early theatrical days, which cannot fail to please our readers as much as they have us. See First Page.

STENOGRAPHIC GLIMPSES OF CONGRESS.

Washington, Feb. 8, 1836.

When much is done, little need be said. The Creation is recorded in one verse and ten words. As I reverence the authority, I shall imitate its brevity. Congress has done more in this one day, than all their declamation amounts to for ten weeks. A vote tells more than half a dozen speeches.

The House has devoted the day to yeas and nays on Mr Pinckney's Slavery Resolutions, dividing and sub-dividing the propositions and reasons, on their passage, and taking a vote on each. The whole subject was referred to a select committee of nine with instructions, by a vast majority. Mr Adams will probably be chairman, without requiring much instruction.

I had thought when Abolition was first "laid on the table," it would prove a surgeon's table; and as devoutly believed the subject was dead, as Joanna Southcote's disciples did that she was alive, when she was rotten. It has more lives than nine cats. I hope it will now sleep the sleep of death; it has received a mortal wound, and, I trust, will soon rest in peace and leave the country in peace.

Senate.—Mr Clayton finished his speech on Col. Benton's Resolutions; Judge White made one on the same subject, warning the world against the fatal gift of popularity in Chief Magistrates. His warning, I fear, will pass as unheeded as Cassandra's. Col. Benton made a short speech full of original views, which will meet the entire approbation of his countrymen.

The President submitted a Message on the mediation.

REIS EFFENDI.

"Fag-end-ism."—The astute editors of the Athas have invented a term, which so admirably and so perfectly expresses that contradictory composition, the universal whig party, that these gentlemen richly deserve a leather medal. This expressive and all-comprehensive term is Fag-end-ism. The pretended whig party, (if a party it may be called, in which there is not one single point of union or agreement, except opposition to the government of the country, and rage for office)—this pretended whig party is made up of the fag-ends of all other parties,—of the dissatisfied, the disappointed, the unprincipled, the office-seekers, in whom no party has had confidence enough to place them in power. They are partly old federalists, old Hartford-conventionists, nullifiers, bankites, old tories, et omne genus. They are partly the old royalists, those who were opposed to our republican constitution, and who desired a monarchy and a hereditary nobility,—those who are now in favor of a "strong government," in which the influence of the people shall be nullified, and the power of the wealthy and of the great monied corporations shall constitute a practical aristocracy. They are partly the dregs of the old republican party, those who being aristocrats in grain, joined the republican party for the sake of office, not being of sufficient importance in the old federal tory ranks to obtain that honor. These, by the dishonest acquisition of large property, or by prostituting their offices to the interests of the aristocratic party, were admitted in to favor and intercourse with its leading members, and are thus become their sycophants and tools, and now rank as whigs. This pretended party, this incongruous mixture of opposing materials, is composed of a fortuitous concurrence of atoms,—the odds and ends, the rag, tag, and bob-tail of all parties, interests, principles, and opinions,—the fag-end of political selfishness and unsuccessful ambition. Fag-end-ism is its appropriate term. "I thank thee, Jew, for teaching me that word."

They are a kind of "broken meat" party, the leavings of all others. They are like a washing-day lunch, or a "picked-up dinner," as it is called,—the fragments, the crusts and bones, the cold cabbage and potatoes of preceding meals. They are the grumblers, the snarlers, the croakers, the ever-dissatisfied members of a prosperous, free and happy community, unrivalled in privileges and enjoyments. Their leaders will cause a second rebellion in heaven, if any of them be so fortunate as to gain admittance to that happy place. O thou Fag-end-ism!—how art thou the enemy and bane of every thing that is patriotic, pure, and good!

New Books.—Among the interesting works just issued from the press, we notice as particularly so, "Notices of the late War, by Gen. Armstrong." Owing to the obstruction of a free intercourse between Boston and New York, this volume has not yet been received here. It is published by Mr George Dearborn, whose editions are justly said to equal any others in the country.—The first volume of the new and elegant edition of Byron is also out—as well as the works of Dryden. The last is a very desirable book, as, though strange as it may seem, it is difficult to procure here in readable shape, except in the costly London edition, the writings of one of the most celebrated poets of the Augustan age in English literature. These works, as well as the beautiful editions of Shakspeare, Burke, &c. &c. of the same publisher, will be for sale by the agent, Mr E. R. Broaders, whose store is a very pleasant place to buy a book, subscribe for a periodical, or procure the latest novel from a new and well selected circulating library.

A Correspondent is anxious that a public Gymnasium should be opened here, and Mr Sheridan invited to take charge of it. In New York and Philadelphia they have them, and in those cities they have proved very popular and useful. Regular exercise is absolutely necessary to secure health and the enjoyment of life, and we dare say that Professor Sheridan would teach a body how to take it, in the most agreeable manner.

An inquest was held yesterday by Coroner Shute, on the body of a man found in the water on the south side of Long wharf, name unknown. He appeared to have been a laboring man, about middling size, and had, apparently, been in the water a week or more; a knife, and a wallet containing ninety cents in change, were found in his pocket. Verdict, death by accidental drowning.

Mr Catlin, the painter, who has visited twenty-eight different tribes of North American Indians, has returned to Albany, and proposes to establish a gallery of paintings illustrating the incidents and characters with which he met during his expedition. He accompanied Col. Dodge.

Mr S. T. Edwards, formerly of this city, has opened a public house in New York, at the corner of Rosevelt and Chatham streets.

THE INDIAN WAR.

The following intelligence will be read with interest. The report of the capture of Fort King may have grown out of the engagement, of which the particulars are given below.

BATTLE NEAR FORT KING.

AND REPULSE OF THE INDIANS, WITH THE LOSS OF THEIR CHIEF, AND 60 WARRIORS LEFT DEAD ON THE FIELD.

Baton Rouge, Jan. 23.—An express arrived here last Thursday night, bringing orders for the immediate departure of the whole of the Troops stationed at this post, for Florida.

An engagement has taken place in the neighborhood of Fort King, between the forces commanded by Col. Clinch and about 600 Indians, whites and negroes. The latter were repulsed leaving about 60 dead on the field. The chief is among the slain. The loss on the part of the U. S. troops is supposed to be about 10, among whom are several officers.

Since the foregoing was in type we have seen the gentleman who brought the express, who informs that there were four killed and fifty-six wounded of the troops under Gen Clinch. The General received several shots through his cap and clothing.

The veteran Gen Scott has already found it necessary to call on the surrounding States for a force of five thousand men, the most of them to be mounted. He considers a less force utterly inadequate to subdue the savage foe.

So adroitly had the Indians managed in cutting off the chain of communication, that Col. Clinch was utterly ignorant of the butchery of the troops on their way to join him, for weeks after it had occurred.

From the New Orleans American, Jan. 26.—The brig Jane, which has just arrived, reports that she was boarded off the Florida Reef, on the 12th, by a wrecker, who had on board the keepers and their families of the several light houses, who stated that several families have been murdered by the Indians of Florida Keys, and that they were obliged to take refuge on board of the wrecker, having been pursued by the Indians, who were destroying every thing, and killing every white person they could meet with.

The Arsenic Story proves to be a very harmless affai after all. We advise the Druggist who first put it in circulation to be more cautious in future. The following explanation is from the Traveller of yesterday:—

The "severe dose."—The physician who wrote the prescription for the arsenic alluded to a few days since, having explained to us the circumstances of the affair, there remains no occasion of giving his name to the public. The fault appears to have been that of the messenger and not of the Doctor. Francis Lafferty, who keeps a livery stable near the Exchange Coffee House, being seriously annoyed by rats, applied to his physician, who gave him a Latin prescription for two ounces of arsenic. The stable keeper sent his order by a dull Irishman in his employ, who, it seems, had a recipe for calomel and jalap for himself. The recipe he presented to the apothecary was for the arsenic; and to the inquiry what he intended to do with it, he replied, "Ate it, to be sure." The apothecary, of course, declined the delivery, and put the interrogatory at the bottom whether the physician intended to order two ounces of arsenic? The messenger did not present his second recipe, but hurried away to tell his employer of the refusal. The recipe was handed to the doctor, who not thinking to make any explanation, put it in his pocket, intending to get the arsenic himself. The Irishman, on returning for his own medicine, could make no explanation, and the apothecary was left very reasonably to infer that there was gross carelessness in the doctor.

A Slaver seized.—A brig called the St. Nicholas was seized by Mr Price, the U. S. District Attorney, in New York, on Tuesday last, as a slaver. It was proved that she was fitted up as slavers usually are—that two of her crew had avowed that such was her business—and one of them had stated, that on her last voyage she carried 500 slaves. The captain was liberated on $5,000 bonds—and the two sailors referred to, committed. One of her crew was "John Battiste," supposed to be the same individual who was tried for a similar offence in this city a short time since.

The President's Message, received yesterday, has delighted every body—the sourest Whigs could find no fault; it is firm, patriotic and judicious. The French controversy has proved who are the true friends of the country—of its honor and its independence—and who are willing to sacrifice and betray it, to gratify personal hatred, and disappointed ambition.

Important if true.—The National Intelligencer says—"We take no exception whatever to the terms of the Message"—meaning the President's last communication to Congress.

N. B.—Tuesday's paper did not contain Mr Webster's declination as it was said it would.

There was a monstrous deal of dancing in the Massasoit House at Waltham, last evening, we reckon. Mr Davis, its landlord, is not slow in any thing he undertakes.

The New Yorkers suffered severely from the effects of the thaw in that city on Monday last. Much property has been destroyed by the floods of water which have poured into buildings both above and below.

Lieut. Wheelock, arrived in New York from this city, on Tuesday, with his company of dragoons—and is to proceed to Savannah, where they are to be mounted and equipped for service in Florida.

The Common Council voted on Thursday evening, the sum of $500, for purchasing a philosophical apparatus for each of the seven public grammar schools for girls in this city.

On Monday next, the Bachelors of New York give their great Annual Ball at Niblo's. The Boston boys must pack off this morning who intend to be there.

Dunn threatened to pull Bass's nose the other day in Exchange street. 'Well Dunn,' said Bass—'if you attempt it you 'll have your hands full!'

Fuel.—The greatest distress is said to exist in New York in consequence of the scarcity, or rather the exhorbitant price of fuel.

Ohio.—On the 30th ult. the following appointments were made by the legislature of Ohio, viz: Frederick Grimke, supreme judge, in the place of Mr Joshua Collet; Covington W. Searle, president judge of the 4th circuit, in the place of Alexander Harper; and Carter B. Harlan, secretary of state, in the place of Benj. Hinkson, resigned. They were all elected by a vote of more than two to one on the first ballot; and are (says the Hemisphere) all democrats, good and true.

Mr Yeo, a state senator from Greene and Clinton counties, died recently.

The Harrison Convention at Albany, after nominating William H. Harrison for President, and Francis Granger for Vice President, adjourned. The business of fixing upon an electoral ticket as well as candidates for the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor was deferred until June next.

Suffering at Sea—The news schooner Eclipse yesterday boarded brig Newcastle from Oporto, and found the master and crew all badly frost bitten and short of provisions, having on Sunday consumed the last piece of meat on board. A man was put on board to assis in bringing her up—N. Y. Sun.

An editor at Utica, N. Y. has been awarded six cents damages against a brother editor, for a libel.

POLICE COURT.

A Raffle ending in a Scramble.—Between two and three yesterday morning, the watch heard screams of "Murder" and "Mercy," proceeding from a house in Hatter's Square, to which they immediately repaired in a large body. Upon entering, they found a collection of about fifty men and women in "one most tremendous fight. Men were knocking one another down with chairs, women were flying 'round, with their clothes torn to tatters, and trailing on the floor, and others, who had, in the confused hurly burly of the scene, descried the arrival of the watch, jumping out of a back window." Unfortunately, Hugh M'Quid and Hugh Woods were too much taken up with each other to heed the presence of the terrors to evil doers, and continued to belabor one another for some time after the rest of the embattled host had fled. M'Quid was seen to knock Woods down by a blow in the throat, and then attempt to finish him with a chair. Both, of course, became easy prey to the Charlies, and when arraigned yesterday, for "beating, bruising and evil entreating each other," they pleaded not guilty, and appeared to be much more disposed to dispute the right of the authorities to keep them in jail all night, than to offer any explanation of the fracas. Notwithstanding that M'Quid had undoubtedly given Woods "a broth of a bating," still the latter stoutly denied that there "had been anny angry words atwane them," and he offered "to send for fifty min, who would swear, that they niver lifted a hand til other." M'Quid thought, too, "it would be a strange thing, so it would, when the likes uv him would be doing anny way unproper to Hughy Woods, a cliver a bye uv his inches as may be found in the city." Woods concluded the defence, by saying—"To the best of my knowledge and my knowing, I think it very hard to take us and not the others." His Honor told him, that the same complaint was often made, and always received the attention that was due to it, but before giving judgment, he would inquire of the watch what such a number of disorderly persons were doing at the house, at such an unseasonable hour. The Charlie explained, by stating, that when he ordered the people that did not belong to the house to clear out, one woman come up to him, and said—"I dont belong here; I came down to a raffle, and as I dont like to go home at this hour of the night, I should like permission to stay till morning."

There were something like half a dozen dozen tumblers on the table, which had been most devoutly preserved amidst the general wreck of matter and crush of furniture. They were saved undoubtedly by the bacchanalian superstition, that it would be sacrilege to do violence to them. His Honor, after hearing this additional evidence of the character of the assembly, was preparing to pronounce the sentence, when in bolted Mr Anthony Mullenn, a short thick-set gentleman, but, yet paradoxically speaking, the tallest man of his heighth, that we have seen lately. Without a single syllable of preface, he dashed up to the stand, as if he meant to carry the bench by storm:—"May it please your Lordship!" said he—"The men are not guilty—I'm the man that was with 'em—There is no truth in what has been said about the fighting—There were two or three individuals, that began sparring and quarrelling, like, and there was some shoving, pulling, and hauling; but nothing that ought to be called fighting; for there was no blood, nor bruises, nor clothes torn, nor furniture broken."

This testimony, though backed with a marvellous degree of modest assurance, was not calculated to help the prisoners much, and his Honor proceeded again to recapitulate the facts, till he came to the circumstance of the ladies' torn calico, and what not. Here Mr Anthony broke in upon his charge, and flatly contradicted him again, by saying—"May it please your Lordship, there were no ladies present, nor any woman who had her clothes torn."

His Honor, however, seemed determined to disregard friend Anthony, and sentenced the prisoners to pay a fine of $3.00 and costs, or suffer 2 months imprisonment in the House of Correction. In this emergency, to Anthony's everlasting credit be it recorded, he showed himself as ready to defend the prisoners with his purse, as he had been with his testimony, and planked the fine and costs for Woods, while another friend in need did the same neighborly deed for M'Quid.

MASSACHUSETTS LEGISLATURE.

Friday, Feb. 12.—The Senate receded from their votes on the petitions of Messrs Bowman and Winship, for a new Bridge, across Charles River, and concurred with the House. Mr Gray reported a resolve relative to the United States Public lands.

The memorial of Perkins and others in favor of the Ten Million Bank was presented. Pending a debate on the Bill for increasing the capital stock of the Lowell Rail Road Company, the Senate adjourned.

In the House, the Reports of the Joint Committee on Roads and Bridges, granting leave to withdraw, on the petition of Francis Bowman and others, and of Francis Winship and others, for the erection of another Bridge between Cambridge and Boston, came down from the Senate for concurrence. The rejecting of these petitions without a hearing, by the Senate, created great excitement in the House, and on motion of Mr Buckingham, it was voted to non-concur with the Senate, and the petitions were recommitted. Every member in the House, except three, voted for Mr Buckingham's motion.

Mr Jellison, of Boston, presented the memorial of Messrs Perkins & Co., Nichols & Whitney, Mark Healy, and 1736 others, in favor of the "Ten Million Bank."

Mr Kinsman, of Boston, presented the petition of Rufus Davenport, for the incorporation of the "Right Aim School."

Mr Kinsman, of Boston, presented a remonstrance of Stephen Codman, Executor, and others, against the petition of William Vans, which was referred to the select Committee on Mr Vans's petition.

The Bill for extending the jail limits was further debated, and amended, on the third reading, but the house adjourned before the question was taken.

The Bill providing for the election of Sheriffs was made the order of the day for to-morrow.

Bank Investigating Committee—Tenth Session.—The officers of the Oriental Bank appeared to testify yesterdoy afternoon, as soon as the Committee came to order; and from their testimony it appeared, that the bank had never taken illegal interest, either directly or indirectly, unless in cases of drafts on New York, where the discount, including the exchange and premium, has amounted to 8 per cent, may be considered as taking illegal interest. The Bank had never shaved a draft or check at both ends. The Bank had let out its bills, not to be put into circulation, for a short time, but not drawing interest, and only issued to prevent customers from certain failure. The Bank had also taken deposits on interest, but the depositors had to take the word of the Bank for the payment of the interest, as the Bank books contained no evidence of the bargain. The officers had been required to take an oath not to reveal the business of the Bank unnecessarily. The oath was imposed as a precaution against the Paul-Pryism of the directors of rival Banks.

The City Bank Officers were also examined. That Bank had sometimes given checks on New York, and charged a premium for them, when they were not worth so much in the Boston market, as its own bills, and there was good reason to believe that the applicant preferred to have Boston Bills.

The bill to re-charter the U. S. Bank, which was on Saturday passed to a third reading in the Senate of Pennsylvania, (21 to 12,) having previously passed the Assembly, does not contain a provision giving the State power "at any time to rescind the Charter, or alter the privileges" of the Bank. It was proposed so to amend the bill, but the amendment was rejected.

CONGRESS.

Monday, Feb. 8.—In the Senate, the following Message was received from the President of the United States:—

To the Senate and House of Representatives:—

The Government of Great Britain has offered its mediation for the adjustment of the dispute between The United States and France. Carefully guarding that point in the controversy, which, as it involves our honor and independence, admits of no compromise, I have cheerfully accepted the offer. It will be obviously improper to resort even to the mildest measures of a compulsory character, until it is ascertained whether France has declined or accepted the mediation. I therefore recommend a suspension of all proceedings on that part of my Special Message of the 15th of January last, which proposes a partial non-intercourse with France. While we cannot too highly appreciate the elevated and disinterested motives of the offer of Great Britain, and have a just reliance upon the great influence of that Power to restore the relations of ancient friendship between the United States and France, and know, too, that our own pacific policy will be strictly adhered to until the national honor compels us to depart from it, we should be insensible to the exposed condition of our country, and forget the lessons of experience, if we did not efficiently and sedulously prepare for an adverse result. The peace of a nation does not depend exclusively upon its own will nor upon the beneficent policy of neighboring Powers; and that nation which is found totally unprepared for the exigencies and dangers of war, although it come without having given warning of its approach, is criminally negligent of its honor and its duty.

I cannot too strongly repeat the recommendation, already made, to place the seaboard in a proper state for defence, and promptly to provide the means for amply protecting our commerce. ANDREW JACKSON.

Washington, Feb. 8, 1836.

On motion of Mr Clay, the message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

A communication was received from the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, containing their report, and suggesting the discontinuance of their Board.

Mr Wright presented a memorial from the Chamber of Commerce of New York, on the subject of relief to the sufferers by the late fire, which was laid on the table, and ordered to be printed.

Mr Kent offered a resolution providing for an inquiry into the expediency of establishing a Navy Yard at Baltimore—lies on the table one day.

A resolution submitted by Mr Benton, inquiring whether the mint was regularly and amply supplied with bullion &c. was adopted.

The Senate proceeded to consider the resolutions offered by Mr Benton, when Messrs. Clayton, White, Grundey and Benton addressed the Senate. Mr Leigh had the floor when an adjournment was moved and carried.

In the House, the rules were suspended, in order to afford Mr Pinckney an opportunity to submit the following resolution:—

Resolved, That all the memorials which have been offered or may hereafter be presented to this House, praying for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, and also the resolutions offered by an honorable member from Maine, (Mr Jarvis) with the amendment thereto, proposed by an honorable member from Virginia, (Mr Wise,) and every other paper or proposition that may be submitted, in relation to this subject, be referred to a select committee, with instructions to report,

That Congress possesses no constitutional authority to interfere, in any way, with the institution of slavery in any of the States of this Confederacy, and that, in the opinion of this House, Congress ought not to interfere, in any way, with slavery in the District of Columbia, because it would be a violation of the public faith, unwise, impolitic, and dangerous to the Union,—assigning such reasons for those conclusions as in the judgment of the committee, may be best calculated to enlighten the public mind, to repress agitation, to allay excitement, to sustain and preserve the just rights of the slave holding States, and of the people of this District, and to establish harmony and tranquility amongst the various sections of the Union.

After a short debate the previous question was called for and sustained. The third branch of the proposition was divided, on motion of Mr Underwood, so as to present a separate question on the following clause, viz—"That in the opinion of this House, Congress ought not to interfere, in any way, with slavery in the District of Columbia," and, the question being taken, it was determined in the affirmative, yeas 163, nays 47.

The question having been taken on the second portion of the third branch, viz—"because it would be a violation of the public faith, unwise, impolitic, and dangerous to the Union"—it was also determined in the affimative, yeas 127, nays 76.

The remaining portion of the resolution, for "assigning reasons," &c., was carried by the following vote, yeas 168, nays 6. So the entire resolution as stated above, was adopted.

The President's Special Message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Fire.—A most destructive fire broke out in Doylestown about 2 o'clock on Thursday morning, in the building opposite Mr James's Hotel—it being the dead of the night, it was a difficult matter to get the people up. The fire broke out in a building belonging to John S. Bryan, Editor of the Doylestown Democrat, but in the portion of the building which was occupied as the oyster shop of N. Hubbard and the jewelry shop of C. Savage. The whole of the latter establishment was entirely consumed, together with the entire printing establishment of Mr Bryan. The fine new brick building and store of Mr C. Harvey was also consumed—the adjoining house of Mrs Sharpless was several times on fire.

Capture of a Slaver.—The schooner Creole, arrived at New Orleans from Havana, spoke, Jan. 15th, the British ship of war Champion, which informed that on the 12th, on the North side of Cuba, she chased ashore a Spanish Guineaman, and got her off after forty hours hard work. She had on board 130 slaves.

A man who sings "Jim Crow" at the Portland Museum, on Friday last met the editor of the Juvenile Reformer in the streets, and gave him a tremendous flogging, and all because the editor called him by his right name—"a vagabond."

"MIDDLESEX" will be published on Monday.

To the Editor of the Morning Post—

Sir—When about three years old I lost the sight of my left eye, and never till now could get it restored, though I tried some of the most learned doctors in Ireland. I am now twenty years of age. About a month since I was advised by a friend to consult Dr Williams at the Bromfield House. A thick white skin or film covered the almost entire of my left eye during 17 years; so that I could scarcely discern only the light and very large objects; but to the surprise of all my friends, the surface of the eye is now more than one half cleared of that thick skin which covered the whole eye, and I can now see to read large letters and distinguish every object. My gratitude is great, and so is my distress by reason of hearing that my benefactor will leave Boston for another more favored city before my cure is perfect. But if I can I will follow him should he not be prevailed upon to stay a few weeks longer for me and many others who are receiving, like myself, so great relief. Perhaps when Dr Williams sees this letter, he may be touched with compassion for us, and resolve to stay a little longer.

With lasting gratitude to him, I remain yours, &c.

PATRICK COYLE.

WILLIAM VANS, native citizen of Massachusetts, again respectfully petitions your hon. bodies, and represents John Codman, partner with Richard Codman, from the year 1791 to the year 1803, when John Codman died; this copartnership was never dissolved in America or France, according to law; that your petitioner will prove in a judicial court, before a jury, as a Committee of this House reported in 1835, (Extract as follows):—"It does appear said (Vans) recovered sundry judgments in France, of Richard Codman, on account of his claims." And no evidence produced before your committee, these judgments had been paid That is valued, principle, interest and expenses, to upwards of 500,000 dollars Therefore your petitioner prays your hon. body the statute of limitations may be suspended that your petitioner may enter a judicial court, and have a trial by jury; and prove John Codman partner with Richard Codman in their transactions with your petitioner. In conformity to the Constitution, which says, "no man shall be deprived of his life, liberty or estate, but in a trial by jury." AT A MEETING of the "UNITED BENEVOLENT SOCIETY OF JOURNEYMEN TAILORS" of Boston, held on the 2d inst, the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, we have associated ourselves for the purpose of relieving our mutual misfortunes:

And whereas, it adds much to the calls upon our Society to have its members discharged from their employment in the middle of winter, to make room for girls—and that, too, without fault:

And whereas, the public are induced to suppose that many firms in this city permanently employ men—instead of which they only do so occasionally, therefore

Resolved, That we will publish in the papers, a list of the names of the proprietors of tailoring establishments who are in the constant habit of employing men, that the public may know at what shops their work will be done in a thorough and workmanlike manner.

Resolved, That the above Preamble and Resolutions, together with the list of said firms, be published in the Daily Evening Transcript, Boston Morning Post, Commercial Gazette, and Patriot & Chronicle.

Samples will be lodged by the Navy Commissioners at the Navy Yards at Charlestown, Brooklyn and Gosport, to which the deliverers must conform in strength and quality.

The numbers 1 and 2 are to be woven from double threaded yarn, slightly twisted; number 4 must have the warp of double threaded yarn, and the filling of single threads. Numbers 6, 7 and 8, to be of single threads.

Ten per centum to be retained by the United States on the amount of all deliveries for which bills may be approved, untill the final completion of the contract, as security in addition to the bond which will be required; and to be forfeited to the United States, in case of a failure to perform the contract according to all its stipulations.

BOSTON ACADEMY OF PENMANSHIP AND BOOK-KEEPING,
No. 2 Amory Hall.
(Corner of Washington and West streets.)

MESSRS. RICHARDSON & STRATTON, having associated themselves in business, for the purpose of instruction in Penmanship, Book Keeping and Arithmetic, beg leave to offer the citizens of Boston and the public generally a prospectus of the course pursued by them.

PENMANSHIP.

Messrs Richardson & Stratton, are both so well known to the Boston public, as teachers of Penmanship, and have taught that art with so much success in this city, that it will perhaps be unnecessary to say any thing further of their system of instruction, the merits of which are so universally acknowledged. For the information, however, of persons who reside at a distance, and may be desirous of being taught the above branches, they beg leave to add, that the system is simple and natural, and will readily remove that stiffness of the arm and fingers which is so embarrassing, and which other professors have heretofore almost entirely failed to accomplish.

BOOK-KEEPING.

In the department of Book-Keeping, Messrs. R. & S. have had much personal experience, and have also derived valuable information from several eminent merchants of this city, which enables them to combine the elementary instructions of the master, with the practical improvements of the merchant. They propose to initiate young gentlemen, who are about entering upon Commercial Business, not to teach merchants. They do not pretend to have made any new inventions or discoveries, but will, in all cases follow the most approved precedents of mercantile experience, and give their pupils such practice, as will enable them, when they arrive at the Counting house, to transact business with precision and despatch.

Terms in the above branches may be known by application at their room.

Classes in session morning, afternoon and evening.

DR. PHELPS' ARCANUM.—This Syrup is celebrated for the Cure of Scrofula, Eruptions or Diseases of the skin, Syphilis or Venereal Complaints, Rheumatism, Ulcers in the Throat and other parts of the Body, Mercurial Affections, Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Blood, Deep seated pains in the Muscles, Bones, &c. and a regenerator of emaciated and broken Constitutions, caused by disease, intemperance, &c.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Having been made acquainted with the medical qualities and witnessed the effects of "Dr Phelps' Arcanum," I feel much confidence in saying it is a preparation of medicine greatly superior to any thing of the kind, in curing those chronic diseases for which it is intended, and recommend it to invalids in preference to any other article whatever.
SAMUEL L. MITCHELL, M. D.
New York, March 25, 1830.

My knowledge of the properties and operation of the "Arcanum of Dr Phelps," justify me in saying that it is far superior to any depurative syrup with which I am acquainted. In the most obstinate and ambiguous diseases, it displays effects peculiarly surprising. In those affections that resist the skill of the physician, such as Rheumatism, Syphilis, Scrofula, Ulcerations, and Diseases of the skin, &c., I would recommend it as worthy of great confidence. JOHN D. GODMAN, M. D.
Philadelphia. Nov. 27, 1829.

For the last few years I have suffered excessively by a Billious Mercurial Disease, which has rendered me frequently unfit for duty, and confined me as often to my berth. My disease was the sequela of bad treatment, while in the more tropical latitudes, and laboring under an acute inflamation of the liver, and other Billiary organs. Prior and pubsequently to our arrival in this port, I have had recourse to a great variety of prescriptions, medicines and nostrums—among which, were a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Potter's Catholicon, the Rob of Laffecteur, &c., but without any benefit.—Dr Phelps being at that time a student of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, advised me to make use of a newly discovered medicine, the Arcanum, which he believed would suceed in relieving me, in consequence of the very signal effects himself and others had observed in its operation in various glandular diseases, that were otherwise considered incurable. I commenced its use accordingly, and it affords me pleasure to state, that for several months past, not a vestige of the original or secondary disease has been discoverable. I prize the medicine above all others with which I have ever been acquainted. It is both pleasant and I believe certain it its effects, as a remedy in a variety of chronic diseases, incident to tropical and other climates. J. ANDREWS, Purser of the Columbian Brig Pinchinca.
Philadelphia, Jan. 5, 1835.

SAVANNAH, 6th March, 1831.

GENT.—I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude to you in offering me a bottle of DR PHELPS' ARCANUM, as an experiment in my case of Rheumatism. I have been dreadfully afflicted for upwards of twelve months, and for the last four or five months have scarcely been able to walk. I have used a dozen bottles of Swaim's Panacea, and found very little benefit from it. After taking the bottle of Arcanum, I found such a change in my whole system, that I was induced to try another, and to my surprise, the pains in my legs all disappeared, and the Ulcers in one have completely healed up, and I can walk nearly as well as ever. I shall continue to take two bottles more, and firmly believe it will make a complete cure of my disease. I remain, gentlemen, yours very respectfully,
JNO. MORRALL.

Messrs Lay & Hendrickson, Druggists, Savannah, (Geo.)

Extract of a letter from Dr Jones, a highly respectable physician, dated Baton Rogue, Louisiana, Dec. 28, 1833.—The Arcanum had two powerful competitors, Swaim's Panacea, and Potter's Catholicon, which have been for years in circulation in this place. As far as I have had an opportunity of ascertaining its virtues, I believe the Arcanum to be superior to any article of the kind, yet offered to the public. I prescribed it in a case of Irritable Ulcer of three years standing, situated on the Malleolus Extrenus—the individual thus afflicted was much emaciated and debilitated,—after one week's attendance, I put him upon the Arcanum, following the directions three bottles nearly effected a cure of the ulcer and bodily health.

I prescribed it in several Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, where it proved salutary. I am at this time trying the Arcanum on an individual, who has been laboring under Ulcerous affections of one of his legs, for fifteen years,—he has taken 1 bottle only, and it has produced that effect, he is sanguine in the belief, it will effect a permanent cure.

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints, weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pain over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain as tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetabl Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr. No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston; Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury.

PRICE REDUCED.—VEGETABLE EXTRACT. This is the most valuable remedy yet discovered for the cure of Throat Distemper, or Malignant, Putrid, Ulcerated Sore Throat, Scarlet Fever, Canker Rash, Canker in the Mouth, Throat and Bowels, Diarrhea, Dyssentary, Sore Mouth of nursing women, and Acrid Humors of Teething Children; in short, for almost all the affections of the Mucus membrane of the mouth, throat and alimentary canal. These diseases are acknowledged by all physicians to be of the most severe and obstinate character, and have long baffled their skill and research. The discovery therefore of an effectual remedy for them, particularly for the various forms of Scarlet Fever, must be considered by every true philanthropist as an invaluable desideratum. As a common and perfectly safe family medicine, it will be found of inestimable value in cases of common sore throats and colds—disordered state of the stomach and bowels—such as habitual costiveness, indigestion, flatulency, nausea and vomiting. Also, in cases of weakness arising from fever and all debilitating diseases, such as consumption, &c; it will be found very beneficial as a cathartic and alterative, as it neither causes debility, nor does it, as is the case with the operation of most medicine, so readily dispose one to take cold.

The Vegetable Extract has now been some time before the public, and its great powers justly tested. Hundreds of individuals have successfully tried it, and several eminent physicians are in the almost daily use of it in their practice, who are truly astonished at its great curative qualities, and are ready to give their testimony in favor of its efficiency and power. There now remains but one obstacle in the way of its very general use, and that is, the price. The proprietors, being desirous to obviate this difficulty, have therefore determined to reduce the price to 62½ cents per bottle, for one year, which barely remunerates for the great expense of preparing the article; this will bring it within the means of every person, so that no one need suffer for the want of it; and the poor man be able to obtain it for himself and family, as well as the rich.

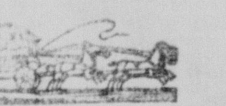

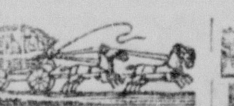

N. B.—Should any one still feel scrupulous of what is here stated, relative to the Vegetable Extract, and will call on one of the proprietors, No 118 State street, Boston, besides the recommendations which will accompany each bottle, other abundant and most satisfactory evidence will be exhibited respecting it.

ADAMS'S PATENT

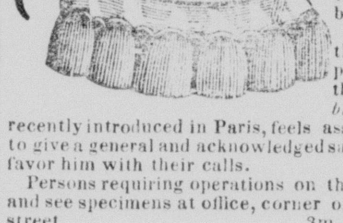

THE subscriber has on hand a good assortment of the Swelled Beam Windlass Bedsteads, which, for comfort and convenience is undoubtedly the best article yet invented; its chief peculiarity is that of the Swelled Beam, the effect of which is to produce a crowning, and elastic sacking, and effectually provides against its saging. They are easily set up or taken down, and may be saved in case of fire as easily as any other piece of furniture, and from its mode of construction less liable to harbor insects than any other kind; but above all its advantages is the ease and comfort obtained from the sacking, by means of its being made and kept elastic by means of the Swelled Beam, (the form of which is exhibited in the above cut.)

Orders thankfully received, and promptly attended to CHARLES ADAMS, Patentee,
422 Washington st. a few doors south of Washington Bank.

THOMSONIAN BOTANIC INFIRMARY, No 554, Washington-street, BOSTON, Opposite the Worcester Rail Road Ticket Office.——The subscriber would inform his friends and the public, that he has taken that large and spacious Infirmary above named, and formerly occupied by Dr Brown and himself—that he has fitted it up in a style not surpassed by any other in the State for convenience and comfort: the rooms are large and airy, and command a fine prospect of the Worcester and Providence Rail Roads and the surrounding country on the West—Boston Harbor, its islands, shipping, light houses, &c. on the East, with the most pure air of any part of the city. The subscriber is also determined that nothing shall be wanting through every department of his Infirmary as to neatness and regularity, good order, the best of nursing and attention, to make every one who favors him with their patronage happy and contented. He has also a valuable library of the best selected books for the instruction and amusement of his patients He has also in readiness clean changes of linen for all patients who come to take single courses of medicine, and India Rubber coverings for the mattrasses and beds he always uses to prevent contagion. His steam boxes have windows with curtains, so that patients who are feeble can at any time put out their heads and breathe fresh air. The boilers are so constructed that he can at any moment graduate the steam to suit their wish or ability to bear, so that there is not the least danger to the most feeble constitution, not even for an infant of a month old. The shower of two quarts of cold water is delicious, though we never insist on it, as it is always a matter of choice with the patients, and a person who has once taken it will never after be denied, but will frequently call for more. The said subscriber has owned Dr Samuel Thomson's family right nearly three years, has given strict attention to its precepts, and for the five last months has administered pure Thomsonian medicine to over two hundred persons, many of whom suffered under the most desperate complaints, and had been given over to die by the regular physicians—and such has been his success, that out of the whole number every individual except two persons have been relieved, and more than three fourths cured who have left his Infirmary, one only having died at the Infirmary. He will still continue to administer Thomsonian Medicines in their purity at his Infirmary, assisted by Dr Darling in all difficult cases, who has been a regular Practitioner of the Thomsonian System for more than fourteen years in this city. Mrs. Badger will attend to the Ladies department at all time—she having been an experienced nurse over eighteen years, a part of which time she was nurse in the Massachusetts General Hospital, since in private families, and for the two last years a strict Thomsonian nurse. The subscriber would respectively invite the afflicted of all descriptions to call and examine for themselves, and if they should see fit to put themselves under his care, let their disease be what it may, if timely application be made, he will ensure a speedy relief.

N B. For sale at the above establishment, a general assortment of pure Thomsonian Medicines, done up with directions for use, at wholesale and retail.
